Naples, March 26. The King has appointed the Marquefs de Fogliani to be Viceroy of Sicily, and he is preparing to fet out from hence, in order to take Poffeffion of that important Employment. The laft Eruption of Mount Vefuvius, which continued longer than any of the former, is at length ceafed, no inflammable Matter having been thrown out for fome Days. Information having been received at Court, that the Inhabitants of Termini in Sicily have not only refufed paying certain Taxes, but even wounded fome of the Officers appointed to collect the fame, his Majefty has fent Orders to the Governor of Palermo, to fend thither a Detachment of 200 Men, in order to oblige thofe Inhabitants to a Compliance with the Laws, and to fecure the Authors of the late Difturbances.

Petersbourg, March 29. The laft Difpatches received from M. Obreskow, our Refident at the Ottoman Porte, aflure us, that the new Sultan continues defirous to follow the Example of his Predeceffor, in living at Peace with his Neighbours, and particularly with this Empire.

Genoa, April 2. We are informed by the Maffer of a Ship that arrived here a few Days ago from Malta, that two Men of War were fitting out there, in order to cruize on the Coaft of Spain, againft the Corfairs of Barbary.

Rome, April 5. The Government having received Advice, that two Barks, laden with Tobacco, had appeared off Ancona, and that a Gang of 60 Smuglers had been feen on the Coaft watching for them, Orders were immediately given to prevent their landing. On the 21ft of laft Month, in the Night, we had a dreadful Storm of Thunder and Lightening, which greatly damaged the Church of St. Lucia.

Prague, April 8. The Moldau rofe fo high a few Days ago, as to overflow its Banks, occafioned by the fudden melting of the Snow upon the Mountains, and by its Rapidity, and the vaft Quantity of Timber and other Things it was feen to carry with it, we apprehend it has done great Damage in the flat Country. Several large Bodies of Recruits have lately paffed through this City, in order to join their refpective Regiments in Moravia, and her Imperial Majefty's other Hereditary Countries.

Vienna, April 9. Two Battallions of the Regiment of Foot of Henry Daun, who arrived here a few Days ago from Bohemia, are already marched for Croatia, and the Third is forthwith to take the fame Route. We have received Advice, that the Ambaffador, who is coming here on the Part of the new Sultan, to notify in Form the Advancement of that Prince to the Ottoman Throne, is arrived at Raab, fo that 'tis expected he will be here next Week.

Munich, April 13. On Wednefday laft their Serene Highneffes, accompanied by feveral of the Nobility, took the Diverfion of Hunting in the Foreft of Furftenried, and returned at Night to the Palace of Nymphenbourg. The Cardinal Prince Bifhop of Liege, Uncle to the Elector our Sovereign, intends to pafs fome Time at this Place, before he fets out for his Bifhoprick of Freyfengen, and Preparations are making at Court for his Reception.

Paris, April 18. The Deputies from the States of Burgundy had on Sunday laft an Audience of the King at Verfailles. They were introduced to his Majefty by the Prince of Conde, Governor of that Province, and by the Count de St. Florentin, Minifter and Secretary of State, and conducted by the Grand Maffer of the Ceremonies. This Deputation was compofed of the Abbe de Citeaux for the Clergy, the Marquefs d'Ecorailles for the Nobleffe, and the Sieur Jouard for the third Eftate.

Hague, April 22. The States of Holland and Weftfrizeland feparated on Saturday laft, and are to meet again on the 7th of next Month. The Deputies of the feveral Colleges of the Admiralty of this Country broke up their Aflembly the fame Day; and, after a long Conference with the Deputies of the Aflembly of the States General, fet out for their refpective Refidences.

Whitehall, April 29.

The King has been pleafed to grant unto Francis Seymour, commonly called Lord Francis Seymour, the Place and Dignity of a Prebendary of the Collegiate Church or Free Chappel of St. George in the Caftle of Windfor, void by the Promotion of Dr. Richard Newcome to the Bifhoprick of Landaff.

The King has been pleafed to grant unto John Davis, Maffer of Arts, the Place and Dignity of a Canon or Prebendary of the Metropolitical Church of Canterbury, void by the Death of Dr. Samuel Shuckford, late Canon thereof.

The King has been pleafed to grant unto Thomas Curtis, Maffer of Arts, the Place and Dignity of a Canon or Prebendary of the Metropolitical Church of Canterbury, void by the Death of Dr. Henry Dawnay, late Canon thereof.

The King has been pleafed to grant unto John Oflwald, Batchellor of Law, the Place and Dignity of a Prebendary of the Collegiate Church of Saint Peter's Weftminfter, void by the Death of Dr. Richard Bullock, late Prebendary thereof.

Whitehall, April 26, 1755.

Whereas it has been humbly repreſented to the King, that, on Wedneſday the 12th of March laſt, betwixt Eight and Nine in the Evening, five Men broke into the Houſe of Sir Hervey Elwes, Bart. at Stoke in Suffolk, and, by Threats, did oblige him to ſhew them where his Money was, which they carried away, to the Amount of about One Thouſand Pounds, and did wound one of his Servants; they were all armed with Piſtols and Cutlaſſes, ſhabbily dreſſed; one was a tall thin Man booted; two were ſhort thin Men without Boots; theſe three had Masks on the whole Time; one of the other two was about forty Years of Age, full faced, freſh coloured, his Complexion inclined to fair, thick ſet, about five Feet four Inches high, had no Mask on for ſome Time, was without Boots; the other was thin bodied, long viſaged, of a pale Complexion, believed to have a Scar on the lower Part of his Face, appeared to be about Thirty, five Feet five Inches high, booted, he had no Mask on for ſome Time: It is believed that a Sixth ſtood without, the Servant, that was attacked at the Stable, ſeeing a Man there, who, he thinks, was not amongſt thoſe that came into the Houſe, and he heard one ſay, that he would ſtand at the Hall Door: His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned in the ſaid Robbery, is pleaſed to promiſe his moſt gracious Pardon to any one of them, who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo as he, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof. T. ROBINSON.

And, as a further Encouragement, the ſaid Sir Hervey Elwes, Bart. does hereby promiſe a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, to any Perſon who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice, or Accomplices in the ſaid Robbery, ſo as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; to be paid by me John Elwes, Eſq; of Great Marlborough Street. John Elwes.

Navy-

Navy-Office, April 24, 1755.

The Right Hon. the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury having appointed Money for paying Half Pay to Sea Officers, from the 1ſt of July 1754, to the 31ſt of December following, according to his Majeſty's Eſtabliſhment on that Behalf;

Theſe are to give Notice, that the ſaid Payment will begin to be made at the Treaſurer of the Navy's Office in Broad Street, on Monday the 12th of May, at Nine of the Clock in the Morning, and continued the two following Days, beginning at the ſame Hour; That all Perſons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable unto them, and not only bring with them the Affidavit required touching their not having enjoyed the Benefit of any publick Employment, either at Sea or on Shore, during the Time they are to be paid the ſaid Half Pay, but alſo produce Certificates that they have ſubſcribed to the Teſt, and taken the Oaths required by Act of Parliament to his preſent Majeſty. And in Caſe any of the ſaid Sea Officers ſhall not be able to attend themſelves to receive their Money, but employ Attorneys for that Purpoſe, that the ſaid Attorneys may produce the like Certificates and Affidavits from the Perſons they are employed by.

General Poſt-Office, April 22, 1755.

Whereas the Poſt-Boy, carrying the Derby Mail, that was diſpatched from this Office on Saturday the 19th Inſtant, was attack'd between Market Harborough and Kibworth, on Sunday Night the 20th Inſtant, about Eleven o'Clock, by two Men on Foot, who ſeized on his Horſe's Bridle, and led him to an Hedge about one hundred Yards diſtant from the Road, where they took off, and rifled the Mail, and took out and carried off the following Bags, viz.

Leiceſter,	Nottingham,
Loughborough,	Derby and Aſhbourn.

The Boy ſaith, one of the Robbers was a middle-ſized thin Man, and the other a fat jolly tall Man: The middle ſized Man had on a light colour'd Coat, and wore his own Hair, which was black, and Part of it platted and pulled over his Face, and his Hat ſlouched before, and was ſeemingly a genteel Man. The fat jolly tall Man had on a grey Wigg and Snuff colour'd Coat, and his Hat ſlouched before. After the Robbery they immediately mounted their Horſes, which were tied to the abovementioned Hedge, and rode with full Speed towards Harborough. The Boy adds, that one of the Horſes was of a grey Colour, and the other a darkiſh Colour.

This is therefore to give Notice, that whoſoever ſhall apprehend and convict, or cauſe to be apprehended and convicted, both or either of them who committed this Robbery, will be entitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending Highwaymen, or if any Perſon or Perſons, whether Accomplice, or knowing of this Robbery, ſhall make Diſcovery whereby either or both of the Perſons, who committed the ſame, may be apprehended and brought to Juſtice, ſuch Diſcoverer or Diſcoverers will, upon Conviction of either or both of the ſaid Robbers, be entitled to the ſame Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and alſo have His Majeſty's moſt Gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Poſt Maſter General,
George Shelvocke, Secretary.
